W. H. Thompson Esq

Dear Sir:

Finding you are not balanced by my Issue Search I am informed you deducted from bill you purchased at last auction owing to something being injured by Davis & Harveys man's packing or rather in transit from them to you. The coods were OK when sold you & if any damage caused by your agents sending goods to you surely it is not right to make us suffer and we request you to send us $1.00 if you say I am entitled to do so Ruth corrections

Yours truly

W. H. Chapman

The above will have to be settled satisfactorally the next time you have a sale or when I have opportunity I shall of seeing you. The difference between us is only the difference in the way we view the matter, but will like to talk this matter over with you my self some day. so will surely pay

Dear Sir

I am sorry for this delay
I must have thought Mr Windle paid for the coins when they were delivered to him, and yet I know he told me he did not, I guess it is simply neglect, for which I hope you will excuse me
